Gone are the days of murals simply advertising soaps and sodas. Today, Nebrask-a murals adorn entire buildings and showcase a community’s history, values, and culture—displays of a community, often by community members.

RURAL PROSPERITY NEBRASKA

Rural Prosperity Nebraska released the first two episodes of its new monthly web series highlighting the efforts of its educators and their impact across Nebraska.

E-COMMUNITIES

6 communities across Nebraska are engaged in identifying, collecting, and cultivating resources that encourage entrepreneurship within their towns.

Hiring the Rural Fellowship program here has been a tremendous asset to our organization."

SUMMER 2023 will mark the Rural Fellowship program’s 10th anniversary. The seven-week program, housed in the University of Nebraska-Lincoln’s Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources, places college students in Nebraska towns to help create and execute community-improvement projects. The application window opened Oct. 1.

Marketing Hometown America

This educational program focuses on recruiting and retaining new residents. It engages communities through small groups, to get more people involved and more voices heard, as a tool to create dialogue that moves toward action.

HOW HAS RPN HELPED YOUR COMMUNITY?

HOW CAN RPN HELP YOUR COMMUNITY?

Contact our Communications Team ruralprosperityne@unl.edu

RURAL FELLOWS

APPLICATIONS NOW OPEN

Summer 2023 will mark the Rural Fellowship program’s 10th anniversary. The seven-week program, housed in the University of Nebraska-Lincoln’s Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources, places college students in Nebraska towns to help create and execute community-improvement projects. The application window opened Oct. 1.

Having the Rural Fellowship program here has been a tremendous asset to our organization.

SUMMER 2023 will mark the Rural Fellowship program’s 10th anniversary. The seven-week program, housed in the University of Nebraska-Lincoln’s Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources, places college students in Nebraska towns to help create and execute community-improvement projects. The application window opened Oct. 1.